Sine Qua Non regrets to announce that its co-founder and president, Théo Beauchamp has decided to step down from office. His decision will take effect as of 11 February 2020.

In the name of the entire Sine Qua Non team we would like to extend our gratitude and affection to Théo and wish him all the best for his future endeavours. His vision and energy greatly inspired all of us and set the ground for what Sine Qua Non has become today.

Sine Qua Non's current Vice President Antoine Michon will assume the role of President.
